The Twenty-Fourth Annual CAAPS Student Conference on Peacemaking, Diversity and Social Change

Statement of Intent to Participate
Call for Proposals

Saturday, March 26, 2011    9:30 am-3:30pm
Trinity Washington University
Washington D.C.

Please indicate the capacity in which you would like to participate:

___________ Presenting your research as part of a student panel
___________ Joining a roundtable discussion of a topic you have researched.
___________ Acting as a moderator for a roundtable discussion

Name and Address ________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

E-Mail ___________________________________________________________

Telephone _______________________________________________________

Student status __________________________________________________

University _______________________________________________________

If applicable, please give a brief description of a topic that you would like to present or discuss:

Some conference rooms will be equipped with computers and projectors for presentations. Will you need this equipment (circle one): YES  NO

Please submit your proposal to your campus representative by Wednesday, March 16, 2011