

The Trinity Difference

ENSURING YOUR SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO EARNING A GRADUATE DEGREE IN EDUCATION

- Are you interested in earning a graduate degree in education, but work or have family responsibilities...or both?
- Do you question how you can balance your many roles with school?
- Are you wondering how you could pay for another degree?

If you've answered yes . . .

Then join the majority of graduate students in Trinity's School of Education who are in Transition.

The Trinity Difference

Seminar-Style Classes

Collaborative Relationships with Faculty
Commitment to Educating for Change

Tran·sit·ion (tran-zish-on) n. The process of moving into and moving forward into a new stage of life.

Trinity recognizes that most adults need support as they transition into graduate school, and the School of Education provides a program for success with a seminar just for people like you. Trinity's School of Education is fully accredited and offers graduate degree programs in counseling, teacher preparation, advanced curriculum design, and educational administration, as well as teacher certification programs.

FEATURES OF THE TRANSITION TO GRADUATE SCHOOL SEMINAR:

- What professors want to see in their assignments (before they are due)
- How to use the library in the computer age
- How to manage your time
- How to finance your degree
- Who to contact and what to do if you need assistance

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT
THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AT 202/884-9555