Trinity

New Student Orientation

Spring 2013

Monday, January 14th & Tuesday, January 15th

Welcome!

We are so glad to have you as a member of our community. Over the next two days you will have the opportunity to meet your classmates, faculty, and staff members, all of whom will play an important role in your college experience.

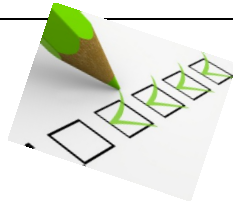

Throughout orientation we will be sharing important information about life at Trinity that will help ease your transition to the college and prepare you for academic and personal success.

New Student Orientation is required for all new and transfer students. With that in mind, students are expected to attend all of the scheduled programs.

During orientation, faculty and staff will be available to answer any questions you may have about course work and student life at Trinity.

Orientation Check List

What to Bring to Orientation

- Notebook
- Academic Planner/Calendar
- Pens/Pencils
- Copy of your Class Schedule
- Documents to Complete Financial Aid & Payment Arrangements

Tips and Suggestions

Coordinate a morning routine and a travel plan that allows you to arrive on-time.

Dress in attire that is comfortable, yet appropriate for the classroom.

Write down any questions you have so you are ready to ask them during orientation.
