

Information Literacy Faculty Input Survey

What would you like your students to know?

* Required

Name

(optional)

Discipline *

Searching Google, using Wikipedia, and the open web *

How to effectively use the open web

1 2 3 4 5

Low importance High importance

Understanding databases *

What they are, how to use them, why they exist, what they are for, etc.

1 2 3 4 5

Low importance High importance

Understanding peer reviewed articles *

What they are, the importance, why professors require them, etc.

1 2 3 4 5

Low importance High importance

How to search in a database *

Effectively using the databases, keywords, search terms, abstracts, etc.

1 2 3 4 5

Low importance High importance

Copyright & Plagiarism *

When to cite, how to cite, etc.

1 2 3 4 5

Low importance High importance

In the past, have you had a librarian to your class for an information literacy session? Yes NoOther information needs important to you

What other information literacy skills would you like your students to learn? Anything specific to you discipline? Or general comments

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

