The mediocre teacher tells; the good teacher explains; the great teacher demonstrates; the excellent teacher inspires.
—William Arthur Ward

Discovering the Leader in YOU!!!
Who Are You?

- Where do you, in terms of being an educational leader, fit into the educational system?
  - How does your role define you as a leader?
- What has been your greatest success in leadership? What did you learn from this success? With whom did you share this success (key players/stakeholders)?
- What has been your greatest challenge in leadership? What did you learn from this challenge? With whom did you share this success (key players/stakeholders)?
Leadership Qualities

- Can communicate a clear vision (A)
- Elevates people (B)
- Can lead and follow (C)
- Leads by example (D)
- Has a spirit of self-sacrifice (E)
- Will balance loyalties (F)
- Is humble and honest (G)

http://www.ascd.org
The effectiveness and overall performance of a leader is readily critiqued by those that they lead. The skills and character of their performance in the infinite and complex roles that leadership demands contribute to how their effectiveness and overall performance are assessed.
Data....Not Always Quantifiable!

- A leader is not only defined by the quantifiable data that is collected to determine success.
  - What qualitative information can be collected?
  - How/when is this information useful?
  - Are qualitative results as meaningful as quantitative? Why?
• http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xuY8arvHcmA
• http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z7O8s6NgAck
• http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Oubh57URFaE