

Invocation

May 19, 2018

Trinity Washington University

O God,

You are ever present

And know the whole if it—

The hopes and fears,

The joys and successes—and the stumbles— and the tears

That bring our Graduates to this day.

We count on You to be with us—here and now—as this moment of great accomplishment is celebrated with diplomas, hugs, congratulatory handshakes and bright smiles.

Touch our hearts with your affirmation and enable our ears to hear you say, “Well done, good and faithful students!”

We address you as our Creator, our Sustainer, our Constant Companion and Friend, and Higher Power, as Muslims—our Allah, as Jews—Adonai, as Christians- God, Father, our Holy Trinity.

O God of Light and Life, bless our graduates with your Goodness, and be with us today and all days for we are your loving creation. Amen.

Aih,sndden
